First and second finger of left hand. Finger nails, like n° 12151. Knuckles, two incised lines each on back of fingers, and one, two or three lines each, on front. Highly polished.

(pl. X).

First and second fingers of right hand. Finger nails and three knuckles (marked on back of fingers only) indicated by incised lines. Smoothed, not polished.

(pl. X).

First and second fingers of right hand. Finger nails and three knuckles (on back of fingers only) indicated by incised lines. Smoothed, not polished.
12159. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Obsidian. — Height 0 m. 064 mill. (pl. X).

First and second fingers of right hand. Finger nails, very rudely cut. Knuckles marked only on back of fingers. Smoothed.

First and second of right hand. Finger nails scarcely indicated. Joints marked inside by deeply incised lines. On back, two incised lines on second finger. Rudely cut. Dull polish; edges roughened (by filing?) after polishing.

First and second of right hand. Finger nails marked by incised lines. Roughly shaped. Smoothed, not polished.

First and second of right hand. Finger nails well made. Joints marked only on inside, by three incised lines on each finger near top.

12163. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Obsidian, mottled dark olive and black. — Height 0 m. 095 mill. (pl. X).

First and second of right hand. Cut off square at base. Finger nails, marked. Joints marked on inside only. Finely polished.

First and second of right hand. Finger nails and knuckles not marked. Division between fingers, indicated only on end. Inside, convex. Outside, flat. Polished.

12165. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Dark mottled stone (obsidian?). — Height 0 m. 054 mill.

First and second of right hand. Division between fingers indicated. Finger nails and knuckles not marked. Inside more convex that outside. Dull polish.
12166. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard, streaked stone, dark olive and black. — Height o m. 044 mill.

Division between fingers, incised line. Finger nails and knuckles, not marked. Roughly cut. Finely polished.

12167. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard mottled stone, dark olive and black. — Height o m. 106 mill.

12168. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Dark olive stone, hard. — Height o m. 11 cent. (pl. X).

First and second of right hand. Finger nails well cut. Knuckles marked inside and out by incised lines. Dull polish. Outside smeared with bitumen bearing print of linen.

12169. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard stone, very dark, almost black. — Height o m. 102 mill. (pl. X).

First and second of right hand. Only the tips of fingers roughly marked, with finger nails and wrinkles of first joint (inside and out). Dull polish.

12170. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard mottled stone, dark olive. — Height o m. 084 mill.

First and second of right hand. Outside, only tips of fingers roughly marked with finger nails and wrinkles of first joint. Inside three joints, each one marked by one incised line. Dull polish.

12171. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard streaked stone, dark olive and black. — Height o m. 086 mill. (pl. X).

First and second of right hand. Outside, finger nails and two wrinkles. Bit of bitumen between tips of fingers. Polished.

12172. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard black stone, with rust colored speckles. — Height o m. 094 mill.

About like n° 12171, but very flat. Smoothed.

Catal. du Musée, n° 5218.
12173. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard black stone, with rust colored speckles. — Height 0 m. 073 mill.

About like n° 12171, but with three wrinkles. Smoothed.

12174. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard black stone, with rust colored speckles. — Height 0 m. 111 mill.

About like n° 12171, but with only one wrinkle. Polished. Small piece broken out of base.

12175. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard, rusty black stone. — Height 0 m. 066 mill. (pl. X).

About like n° 12158, but very flat. Smoothed.

First and second of right hand. On back, outside, finger nails and two wrinkles roughly indicated. Inside two double wrinkles on each finger. Smoothed, not polished.

12178. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard black stone, with rusty colored speckles. — Height 0 m. 101 mill. (pl. X).

First and second of right hand. Finger nails and two double wrinkles on back (outside). Smoothed. Faint traces of gilding.

First and second of right hand. Finger nails roughly indicated. Inside, two wrinkles on each finger, each indicated by one incised line. Traces of bitumen and gilding on inside.

First and second of right hand. Division between fingers alone indicated. Traces of gilding on one side.
12181. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard streaked stone, dark olive and black. — Height 0 m. 123 mill.

First and second of right hand. Division of fingers indicated only at tips. Dull polish. Traces of gilding, clear on one side, faint on the other.

12182. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard streaked stone, dark olive and black, obsidian? — Height 0 m. 115 mill.

About like n° 12181. Polished. Traces of gilding on one side and on edge.

12183. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Hard greenish black stone. — Height 0 m. 104 mill.

About like n° 12181, but thicker and narrower. Smoothed. Traces of gilding on one side.

Bibl.: Journal d’entrée du Musée, n° 30585.

12185. Pair of fingers, as amulet. — Obsidian. — Height 0 m. 115 mill. (pl. X).

Very thin plate with inside slightly concave, outside slightly convex. Division between fingers marked by indentation at top. Outside highly polished; inside smoothed.

12186. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green fayence. — Height 0 m. 074 mill., length 0 m. 107 mill. (pl. X).

Front. — Middle field, jackal lying on a naos; behind him a column for inscription, unwritten. Surrounded by a block pattern border. Hollow cornice marked by vertical lines.

Back. — Middle field, two girdle-knots surrounded by block pattern border like middle field of front.

12187. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green faience. — Height 0 m. 0.83 mill., length 0 m. 0.65 mill. — Gadrab, 1891 (?) (pl. XI).

Form: Plate in shape of front of naos. Back upper edge pierced by four holes on each side.

Front. — Jackal lying down on naos, surrounded by simple black line. Hollow cornice, marked with vertical lines.

Back. — Ded-sign and knot, resting on a black line.

Bibl.: Journal d'entrée du Musée, n° 29597.

12188. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green faience. — Height 0 m. 0.9 cent., length 0 m. 0.87 mill. (pl. XI).

Front. — Ded-sign between two girdle knots, surrounded by block-pattern border. Hollow cornice, vertical lines.

Technique: Figures, signs, etc., incised on plate, filled with black color and glazed. Bright glaze, worn and stained in places.

12189. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green faience and purplish blue faience. — Height 0 m. 0.81 mill., length 0 m. 1.25 mill. (pl. XI).

Form: About like n° 12186. In addition to eight holes through upper back edge, there are twelve holes through the lower back edge. Large hole cut in face, penetrating nearly to glaze on back. In this hole, a large purplish blue scarab.

Front. — Solar bark on which rests upright the large blue scarab. To the left of the bark, Isis; to the right Nephthys (?), both standing with uplifted hands. Cornice; border on bottom and on both sides, like n° 12186.

Back. — Oval, like bottom of scarab, with four lines of almost illegible signs; on each side a girdle knot. The whole surrounded by block-pattern border.

Technique: Signs, figures, etc., incised lines, filled with black before glazing. Bright glaze, worn and stained in places. Glaze on scarab, granular and irregular. Upper corners, cracked (in baking?). One of them repaired in antiquity.
12190. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green fayence (plate) and dark olive slate (scarab). — Height 0 m. 091 mill., length 0 m. 098 mill. — Saqqarah, February 1860 (pl. XI) [1].

Form : Plate in shape of front of naos. Back upper edge pierced by four holes on each side. In center of face, hole with slate scarab beautifully carved in detail. Hole penetrates to glaze on back.

Front. — Solar bark with upright scarab. On left, name of Isis; on right, name of Nephthys. Border and cornice, like n° 12186.

12191. Pectoral, as amulet. — Pale blue green fayence (plate) and greyish purple fayence (scarab). — Height 0 m. 072 mill., length 0 m. 101 mill. — Hieraconpolis (Kom-el-Ahmar), 1887 (pl. XI).

Form : About like n° 12187. In center of front, a scarab, set in.

Front. — Solar bark with upright scarab. To left of scarab on bark, Isis (?); to the right, Nephthys. Border and cornice, about like n° 12189 (front).

Back. — Blank except for one vertical line :

Technique : Signs, figures and ornamentation scratched in, filled with black before glazing. Bright glaze. Scarab made separately of a paler color, inclined to greyish purple : hole cut through plate; scarab inserted, packed in and glazed. Outline of base of scarab visible on back. Broken in two and glued together. Front stained.

Bibl. : Journal d’entrée du Musée, n° 28589.

12192. Pectoral, as amulet. — Dark blue fayence discolored to light blue green and pale purple. — Height 0 m. 11 cent., length 0 m. 125 mill. (pl. XI).

Form : Plate in form of front of naos. Upper back edge, pierced by four holes on each side. Large hole cut through center, for scarab.

Front. — Solar bark with upright scarab (now missing) between Isis standing on left and Nephthys standing on right. Block-pattern border on top and two sides. Vertical lines on hollow cornice.

Technique: Signs, figures, ornamentation scratched in, and colored before glazing: where glaze is well preserved, the color is light bluish green, in other places white. The edge of hole for scarab is glazed inside. Smooth, bright thick glaze. Broken in four pieces and mended. Much discolored.

12193. Pectoral, as amulet. — Yellow and lavender fayence. — Height 0 m. 11 cent., length 0 m. 10 cent. — Gaou, 1895 (pl. XI).

Front. — Solar bark with horizon and scarab (now missing) between Ma’at squatting on left and Isis squatting on right. Surrounded by block-pattern border. Vertical lines, alternate red and lavender on yellow background, on hollow cornice. At the bottom, a row of flowers (nymphaea caerulea) upside down. In plate XI, the shaded parts and black lines are incised and colored lavender. White parts, in relief and colored yellow. Red lines above, incised and red. Red spots below, red.

Technique: Figures and ornamentation in relief(1). Thick smooth glaze. Scarab originally fastened by means of reddish resinous substance.

Bibl.: Journal d’entrée du Musée, n° 31238.

12194. Pectoral, as amulet. — Yellow and lavender fayence. — Height 0 m. 081 mill., length 0 m. 098 mill. — Gaou, 1895 (pl. XI).

Front: Like n° 12193, except upper back edge (not front edge) is pierced by three holes on left, two on right. Instead of hole for scarab, an oval disc either set in or cut loose from surrounding background, level with surrounding purple background and of the same color and glaze. Above it, sun’s disc of red glazed fayence set in.

Front. — Like n° 12193, but Isis on left instead of Ma’at. Row of flowers across bottom not so deep nor so well formed.

Back. — Blank. Yellow with lavender showing through in places.

(1) Yellow and red laid on over purple, see n° 12195 (end).
Technique: Figures and ornamentation in relief like n° 12193. Yellow and red laid on over purple; see back. Vertical lines on cornice incised, and filled with purple and red, but purple is visible under the red in places\(^{(1)}\). Glaze as on n° 12193. Brown stains, especially on heads and shoulders of goddesses.

12195. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue and yellow fayence. — Height 0 m. 068 mill., length 0 m. 085 mill. — Sint, January 1895 (pl. XII).

Front. — Solar bark with upright scarab between Isis on right and Nephthys\(^{(2)}\) on left. Surrounded by block-pattern border. Above, hollow cornice with vertical blue lines. Between cornice and front, half round strip. Scarab, blue, originally gilded; legs of scarab, black; lines on back of scarab yellow. Hair of figures, tips of rudders, spot (horizon?) on middle of boat, marks on prow of boat, black. Background of scarab, red. Background of rest of front and lines on cornice, blue (inclined to purple). Figures, bark, blocks, edges, yellow.

Technique: Body of scarab, set in. Lines on back of scarab inlaid (yellow). The whole pectoral is blue paste, scratched and filled with blue before glazing. Red around scarab was filled in later, unglazed. Black and dark brown, painted on\(^{(3)}\). Upper edge in front, chipped.

12196. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood gilded and inlaid with stones of different colors. — Height 0 m. 11 cent., length 0 m. 141 mill. — Sheikh Abd-el-Gurnah\(^{(3)}\), 14 March 1896. Tomb of \(\begin{array}{c} \text{Sheikh} \\ \text{Abd-el-Gurnah} \end{array}\) (pl. XII).

Front. — Scarab, beautifully worked out of some resinous substance. On the left ded-sign inlaid in blue, red and light blue. On the right, girdle knot of carnelian set in. Around this, block-pattern border in blue, red, and light green (originally light blue?). Above a row of long pendants, inlaid in light green, red and blue and

\(^{(1)}\) Apparently purple laid over whole and baked, then yellow and red laid on and baked again.

\(^{(2)}\) Appears to have been baked a second time, after scarab had been set in and black had been painted on.

\(^{(3)}\) N° 12196-12201 were found in same tomb.
separated by small red dots (inlaid). On hollow cornice row of vertical stripes, each inlaid in red, blue, light green.

Under the signs \( \text{\textcopyright} \) in line 1, are visible the signs \( \text{\textcopyright} \) having been previously written. In line 2, under the signs \( \text{\textcopyright} \), are also visible the signs \( \text{\textcopyright} \).

On the left Isis, on the right Nephthys kneeling with uplifted hands each on a \( \text{\textcopyright} \) (gold) sign, all in relief. Border, cornice, etc., corresponding to front but simply marked out with incised lines and gilded, not inlaid and rather carelessly done.

Technique: Beautiful work. Heavy smooth gilding. Inlaid stones held by cream colored paste. Blue and light green glass. Red (except scarab and knot) appears to be tortoise shell and is in places swollen and discolored, in some places sprung. The scarab (of some resinous material) is cracked; one side of tip and one other smaller piece on right side are gone (whole when found).

12197. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood, gilded and inlaid with different coloured stones. — Height 0 m. 07 cent., length 0 m. 086 mill. — With n° 12196 (pl. XII).

Form: Plate shaped like front of naos. Upper back edge pierced by two holes on each side.

Back. — Mummy, anointed with oil, upright facing right. Before it, offering table with offerings and in front of table facing left standing man, holding censor in right hand and pouring liquid from a vase into a basin with his left. Border and cornice ornamentation in simple lines, corresponding to that of front. In relief and gilded.

Technique: Black, obsidian. Light blue, glass. Blue, lapis lazuli (imitation). Red, shell (?). The leash of the whip and the pattern on basis on which jackal rests, are painted in red and black on the wood and covered with thin plates of clear glass, set in. The inlays are set with fine cream coloured paste. Heavy smooth gilding. Some red stones, swollen and broken. Other stones discolored in places.

12198. Necklace used for suspending pectoral<sup>(1)</sup>— Glass and gilded wood. — Length of long beads 0 m. 04 cent. to 0 m. 046 mill., diameter of spherical beads 0 m. 008 mill. to 0 m. 01 cent. — With n° 12196 (pl. XII).

Beads<sup>(2)</sup>. — Twelve (12) long blue beads, eight (8) light blue ones, and eight (8) of gilded wood, — in all twenty-eight (28) long beads. Thirty-two (32) blue spherical beads, twenty-eight (28) light blue spherical beads, sixteen red (16) ones, and twelve (12) of gilded wood, — in all, 88 small beads. Total 116 beads of all kinds.

Arrangement: Two pairs of strings, one of which passed over each shoulder. All four strings, (2) alike.

Technique: Heavy smooth gilding (like on n° 12196-12197) laid over a layer of plaster. The wooden beads alone are symmetrically made; the others all show more or less irregularity. All are pierced lengthwise.

Two long blue beads and one wooden bead are broken in two. Three of the smaller beads are broken; several, corroded or discolored.

12199. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood gilded and inlaid with colored stones, glass, etc. — Height 0 m. 116 mill., length 0 m. 144 mill. — With n° 12196 (pl. XII).

Front: Scarab, of hard green stone with whitish speckles, set in hole. Scarab similar to that n° 12196, but less carefully cut. On each side of scarab, and facing it, a kneeling goddess with uplifted hands and above each goddess an udat-eye, to the left a right eye and to the right a left eye. Surrounded by block border, similar to n° 12196, consisting of large blocks separated by three stripes in the following order: large blue block, red, light green, blue stripes; large red block, blue, light green, red stripes; large blue block, etc. Ornamentation above, row of pendants like n° 12196, but without intervening red dots. Cornice like n° 12196.

<sup>(2)</sup> In this order when found (Daressy). Large beads show the series, dark blue, gilt, light blue, repeated. Small beads show the series, light blue, red, gilt, dark blue, repeated to middle of the chain; in the rest of the chain the order is confused.

Back. — Bottom of scarab with 9 (?) lines of inscriptions, the first 2 (?) of which are covered with pitch:

On left of scarab a girdle knot inlaid in blue and red. On right, a design inlaid in blue, light blue, and red. Ornamentation on border and cornice, in simple lines corresponding to front (similar to n° 12196-12197).

Technique: Two small boards set together, covered with loosely woven linen, a thin layer of fine plaster and gilded. Blues are glass. Red is carnelian. White is ivory(?). Set in with a fine cream coloured paste.

Gilding much scaled off. Smeared with pitch in places. One stone lost out of front; several out of back.

12200. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood gilt and inlaid with colored glass, stones, etc. — Height 0 m. 07 cent., length 0 m. 09 cent. — Gur-nah, tomb of 𓊩𓊩𓊩𓊩𓊩𓊩𓊩𓊩, 14 March 1896 (Daressy). With n° 12196.

Form: Like n° 12199. Three holes through upper back edge on each side, four of them with fits of string.

Front. — Man seated on a stool holding with right hand a lotus (?) flower to his nose and in the left a bouquet(?). His head anointed(?). Before him a low stand with offerings(?). Then, facing him, a man one foot advanced, holding a bouquet(?) in his uplifted right hand, a single flower (?) in his left. Border and cornice like n° 12199 omitting the row of pendants.

Back. — Incisions in which stones were set, representing a . . . . between two jackals on pedestals facing each other[2].

Technique: Colors like n° 12199. Gilt laid directly on wood.

Gilding and stones, entirely gone from back. Many stones lost out of front. See n° 12201 and 12196.

[1] See n° 5231 and Leveque, Todtenbuch, Cap. xvi, l. 34 ff.
[2] The pectoral was in bad condition and has been much repaired. It is uncertain whether the stones in flowers, etc., have been correctly reapplied.
12201. Necklace used for supporting pectorals. — Glass and gilded wood. — Length of long beads, about 0 m. 037 mill., diameter of small beads, about 0 m. 007 mill. — Gurnah, tomb of 𓊲𓊱𓊳𓊺𓊴, 14 March 1896, with n° 12196.

Beads. — Six (6) long blue beads (cf. n° 12198), eight (8) long red ones, eight (8) long gilt ones, eight (8) long light blue ones, — in all 36 long beads. Forty seven (47) small blue beads, seven (7) dark blue ones, forty-two (42) small light blue ones, twelve (12) small carnelian beads, three (3) rows of three beads joined together, of gilded wood, — in all 111 small beads. Total: 1441 beads.

Arrangement : The presence of the beads composed of three small beads joined in a row, indicates that the necklace was composed of three strands instead of two (cf. n° 12198)\(^1\).

Two blue beads broken. Wooden beads in bad state. Gilding like on n° 12199.

Bibl.: Journal d'entrée du Musée, n° 3199. This necklace with the pectorals n° 12199, 12200, belonged to the second mummy found in the tomb of 𓊲𓊱𓊳𓊺𓊴 (Barissy, Brugsch). — Cf. n° 12196-12198. See n° 12196.

12202. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood gilded and inlaid. — Height 0 m. 094 mill., length 0 m. 10 cent. — Abusir, tomb of the dogs, January 1889.

Front. — Anubis standing with arms hanging, before Osiris seated on a throne. Below two white stones (?) glazed green. Above and on each side block border in the following order : large transparent block, red stripe, light blue stripe; grey block, light blue stripe, red stripe; transparent block, etc. (\(^1\)). Hollow cornice, a row of vertical stripes, each inlaid with a red, a grey; a light blue, and a grey stone.

Technique : Set together out of three pieces of wood held by two pegs driven in from above. In the lower part the grain of the wood runs vertically, in the other two horizontally. The transparent stones are feldspath; the grey stones are feldspath laid in a bed of greenish blue paste. Other coloured stones are apparently glass. All inlaid pieces are held by a fine yellow paste. The background was covered with a layer of plaster and gilded. The Anubis originally held a staff in his right hand; staff and extended right arm now filled with plaster. Skirt of Anubis not inlaid.

\(^{1}\) Present arrangement modern.

\(^{2}\) In the middle block of the upper row, there is now glued (with modern glue) a small scarab of green glazed stone with the signs : 𓊱𓊴𓊳.
Preservation: The lower piece has shrunk so that the upper parts now project on each side. Gilding, plaster and many stones gone from front. Ornamentation on back entirely gone.

12203. Pectoral, as amulet. — Name of $\frac{3}{4}$ $\text{N} \text{N} \text{N}$. — Wood covered with plaster and varnished. — Height 0 m. 113 mill., length 0 m. 161 mill. — Gurnet Murrai, tomb of $\frac{3}{4}$ $\text{N} \text{N} \text{N}$ (pl. XII).

Front. — Solar bark, with upright scarab between Ma'at on the left and Nephtys on the right. Surrounded by a block pattern border. Above, hollow cornice with row of vertical stripes (1) — dark green, red, dark green, light green, dark green, red, dark green (2), etc.

Back. — Representation of bottom of scarab painted on, with eight (8) lines of inscription. On each side, a del-sign:

Technique: Front, figures and border in relief. Covered with plaster, painted and varnished (3). Greens are ground mineral substances, laid on thick. Slightly cracked. Varnish turned yellow.

Ref. : Journal d'entrée du Musée, n° 27264.

12204. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood and black slate (?). — Height 0 m. 136 mill., length 0 m. 184 mill. — Gurnet Murrai, tomb of Sn-udm (pl. XII).

Form: Front of naos pierced by oval hole containing a large stone scarab. Upper back edge pierced on each side by three holes in which are still knotted the ends of the supporting necklace with four heads on the strings, on one side (a green, a red and a green one on one string; a green one on another) and two beads (green), lying beside the pectoral. A string consisting of 6 to 8 threads loosely twisted together, passes through each hole (4). Each string is knotted with a simple knot before entering the upper hole, and each three is then knotted together outside the

(1) Owing to the fact that the varnish has turned yellow, it is difficult to determine the original color of the background.

(2) The dark green was originally a blue or blue green.

(3) Technique same as n° 12206.

(4) Thus there were three strands to the necklace, cf. n° 12193 and 12201.
lower holes with an ordinary double knot, two strings being laid together and tied with the third one (?).

Front. — Solar bark with scarab upright between Isis and Nephthys. Block border, consisting of large dark green blocks separated by three stripes, red, light green, red. Hollow cornice with row of vertical stripes, — dark green, light green, dark green, red, dark green, etc. (like n° 12203). The top of naos is red.

Back. — Bottom of scarab with 11 lines of incised signs. On each side a del-sign, blue-green, red and light green with black outlines. Border like front. Above simple vertical lines, dark red:

Technique: Covered with plaster and painted. No trace of varnish. Scarab set in with a fine yellow plaster. Inscription filled with yellow (?). Blue, yellow, and green consist of ground crystalline substance laid on thick. Design laid out in red lines (except hollow cornice) and with a mistake at stern of bark. Shrinking of wood around the stone scarab has split the pectoral from side to side.

12205. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood. — Height 0 m. 122 mill., length 0 m. 166 mill. — Garnet Murrai, tomb of Sn-ndm (pl. XII).

Form: Front of naos. Back upper edge pierced by three holes on each side half way between middle and side.

Front. — On left, figure of Osiris looking to the right; facing it, a figure of Horus; both squatting and holding an "ah-sign on the knee. Border, cornice and top like n° 12204.

Back. — Girdle knot between two del-signs, surrounded by border and surmounted by row of lines like n° 12204. But the holes for the necklace are not painted.

Technique: Like n° 12204.

Perfect.

Ref.: Journal d'entrée du Musée, n° 27262. See n° 12204.

(1) Impossible to determine manner in which double knot is tied without destroying the knot.

(2) Technique same as n° 12205.
12206. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood. — Height 0 m. 09/4 mill., length 0 m. 13 cent. — Gurnet Murrai, tomb of Sn-mîm (pl. XIII).

Form: Front of naos. Three holes on each side through back upper edge. On the right, a string of 6 to 8 threads loosely twisted, in each hole; all three knotted together below holes, apparently like n° 12204.

Technique: On front the background is sunk throwing jackal, whip, naos and border (as on n° 12203) into relief. Covered with plaster and varnished like n° 12203.

Varnish turned yellow.

12207. Pectoral, as amulet. — Wood and slate. — Height 0 m. 088 mill., length 0 m. 105 mill. — Gurnet Murrai, tomb of Sn-mîm (pl. XIII).

Form: Front of naos with hole in which is set a stone scarab. Back upper edge pierced by four holes on each side, two of which on each side contain ends of strings. Ends of strings double knotted below in a half bow-knot (fig. 1 of the plate).

Strings of 6 to 8 threads. The other two holes (c and d) are empty. Hole e is double, one channel running up through back edge, and the other running down obliquely and coming out on face of pectoral.

Front. — Solar bark with upright scarab resting on the horizon. Isis on right, Nephthys on the left in attitude of n° 12204. Block border and cornice in simple lines. In front of Isis, the signs $\hat{1}$; in front of Nephthys $\hat{\|}$. On the back of the scarab, the lines are painted yellow (white), with two udat-eyes, two $\hat{1}$ signs and two ba-birds also painted yellow.

Top. — Marked by at least two parallel stripes running lengthwise, — originally blue (?) with black outlines.
AMULETS.

Technique: Covered with extremely thin layer of plaster, painted and varnished.
Scarab painted and varnished.
Scaled off on edges. Split by shrinking of wood around scarab. Discolored to a dark greenish hue so that design is indistinct and the colors are not clearly distinguishable.

Bibl.: Journal d'entrée du Musée, n° 97967.

12208. Pectoral, as amulet. — Hard blue frit. — Height o m. 1 0/4 mill., length o m. 1 0/4 mill. (pl. XIII).

Form: Front of naos. Cornice deeply hollowed and separated from front by raised stripe. Depression in cornice for receiving sun's disc, and another in middle of front for scarab. Back upper edge, pierced by two holes on each side.

Back. — On left, facing right, Osiris standing. Before him, offering table above which is an oval (bottom of scarab) with four lines of roughly incised signs. On the right, facing left, female figure with uplifted hands. Border and upper part like front but without hole for sun's disc.

Broken in two obliquely through the middle.

Bibl.: Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4322.

12209. Pectoral with the name of (1), as amulet. — Bluish green glazed steatite. — Height o m. 0 9/4 mill., length o m. 0 9/4 mill. — Saqqarah, November 1858 (pl. XIII).

Front. — Apis-bull on naos, facing left. In front of him an offering table and a male figure standing with left foot advanced and with uplifted hands, facing bull. Block border. Vertical lines on hollow cornice. One line of inscription.

Back. — Jackal on naos facing right. Before him, male figure standing, right foot advanced, hands uplifted, facing jackal, toes of sandals turned up. One line of inscription. Border and upper part like front except that the raised semi-cylindrical strip is replaced by an ornament in simple incised lines such as is used on round mouldings.

(1) Bears the same name as n° 12214, and is probably the companion (or back) piece to n° 12214. Cf. n° 12196-12197.
Technique: Heavy glaze. Color unevenly distributed. Upper left corner, cracked (in piercing holes?) before glazing. Design and ornamentation drawn in simple incised lines.

12210. Pectoral, as amulet. — Green glazed steatite. — Height o m. 07 cent., length o m. 102 mill. — Saqqarah(1), February 1860 (pl. XIII).

Front. — On left, jackal-headed human figure, facing right, seated on throne, holding sceptre in left hand. Before it, an offering table with a pot. On right, facing left, human figure, kneeling on left knee, left hand uplifted. On both sides and below, block border as on n° 12209. Above, vertical lines.

Technique: Bright glaze. Color unevenly distributed. Partly drawn in simple lines, partly sunk relief (man's head, sun's disc). Cracked before (or in the process of) glazing.

Upper front edge, left side, piece broken off.

Form: Like n° 12210.

Back. — Upper part of ded-sign, with arms and sun's disc, and on left upper part of knot, — like n° 12210. Border as on n° 12210, but above them is a row of alternate and .

Technique: Design in simple incised lines, except sun's disc which is in sunk relief. Bright thick vitreous glaze. Color well distributed.

(1) See n° 12190, 12213.
12212 a, b. Two pieces of the same pectoral. — Blue green glazed stone (white).
   — Height (a) o m. 0.37 mill., (b) o m. 0.45 mill., length (a) o m. 0.46 mill., (b) o m. 0.7 cent. (1) (pl. XIV).

Front. — Solar bark with scarab (missing) between two goddesses. Block border. Below is a row of nymphaea flowers. On cornice, winged sun's disc.

Technique: On front, design in relief on sunk background. On back, design in simple incised lines. Scarab fastened with a fine, hard, brown paste. Bright thick vitreous glaze. Color dark and well distributed.

12213. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green glazed stone, inlaid. — Height o m. 0.8 cent., length o m. 0.9 cent. — Saqqarah(2), February 1860 (pl. XIV).

Back. — On right Osiris on a platform; before him, standing man, right foot advanced, hands uplifted. Block border in simple incised lines.

Technique: Central field and nymphaea border, in relief with sunk background. Background filled up by inlaying red glass, held by fine red paste. Large blocks in block border inlaid with red glass (held by red paste) and lapis lazuli (held by blue paste). The small blocks are simply laid off with incised lines. The blue glaze of the stone, where it appears, seems to have been covered with layer of fine white plaster and gilded. Glazed before inlaying. On the back, the design is laid out partly in incised lines and partly in sunk relief. Border, in simple incised lines. Evenly colored. Glaze, dull except in places (due to poor preservation?).

(1) Originally, height about 0 m. 0.95 mill., length about 0 m. 1.2 cent.
(2) See n° 12190, 12210.
12214. Pectoral in name of Amenemhat I, as amulet. — Blue green glazed stone, inlaid. — Height 0 m. 098 mill., length 0 m. 098 mill. — Saqqarah, November 1856 (pl. XIV).

Front. — Solar back with scarab (missing). On the left Isis, on the right Nephthys, standing with uplifted hands. Below water line, and row of nymphæa cerulea like n° 12212. Block border. On hollow cornice winged sun's disc (inlay of disc missing).

Back. — Osiris, offering table and standing man about like n° 12213. Block border, moulding-ornament instead of moulding and row of vertical lines above.

Technique: On front, the background is sunk and inlaid with red and green speckled stones and with lapis lazuli (or imitation), held in place by a hard fine red paste. The sun's disc on hollow cornice, the red and the blue blocks in border, and the spaces between the flowers below, are also inlaid in the same manner. Bright glaze. Color unevenly distributed. Glazed before inlaying, so that the sunk background also shows glaze where sets have fallen out. On the back, the design is in simple incised lines.

Front. — Solar back with two scarabs (missing). On left Nephthys, on right Isis, standing with uplifted hands. Block border on two sides and below; above, winged sun's disc.

Back. — Large scarab with open wings, supporting an oval with six lines, five of which are inscribed. A déd-sign below on each side of scarab. Above, a kneeling man, two posts(?), an lion-eye, a horned disc, an ape and a flower. Above block border; on sides and below, border with simple oblique lines.

Technique: Front, design in relief on sunk background. Sunk background inlaid with light blue, green (originally light blue?) and red glass. Sun's disc also inlaid with red glass. Border and cornice, design made with incised lines. Back, design laid out in incised lines. Sun's disc in upper left corner inlaid (missing).

Lower left corner broken off and glued on, — lighter colored and inlaid piece discolored. Upper right corner, broken off. Both scarabs gone.

Height o m. 067 mill., length o m. 084 mill. — Saqqarah, 14 December 1874 (pl. XV).

Form: Front of naos. Hollow cornice and rounded moulding. Back upper edge pierced by two holes on each side.

Front. — Solar bark with two scarabs (missing) between Isis on left and Nephthys on right. Block border in red and blue with gilded spaces between. On hollow cornice, winged disc.

Back. — Bottom of scarab (i.e. a single oval space) with six lines of inscriptions, supported on an open lotus flower. On left Osiris squatting, on right man kneeling. Block border. Above, is a winged scarab.

Technique: Design on front is in relief on sunk background. Large blocks of border are inlaid (stone or glass) and held by a blue paste; the spaces between are covered with plaster and gilded. Traces of same white plaster on all other parts not inlaid. The red glass inlay pieces have only a thin crust of red on the surface and appear to be light blue green underneath. Back, design partly in sunk relief and partly in incised lines.

Inlaid pieces much discolored. Many inlaid pieces lost out. Gilding much damaged.

12217. Pectoral in name of $\text{\textcopyright}$, as amulet. — Greenish slate, inlaid. —
Height o m. 066 mill., length o m. 075 mill. — Saqqarah, 14 December 1874 (pl. XV).

Form: Like n° 12216.

Front. — Jackal lying on naos, on left; on right, kneeling man. Block border, like n° 12216. On cornice winged scarab.

Back. — On left, Osiris seated on throne; before him a kneeling man. Above, a flying scarab. Block border in simple incised lines, on two sides and below.

Technique: Like n° 12216.

Upper right corner and tip of upper left corner, broken away. Some sets and most of gilding, disappeared.

\(^{(1)}\) N° 12217 is the companion or back piece to n° 12216. N° 12216, 12217 and 12260 were found at the same time and in the same place.
12218. Pectoral, as amulet. — Soft blackish grey slate. — Height o m. 0.97 mill., length o m. 1.1 cent. (pl. XVI).

Form: Front of naos. Back upper edge pierced by two holes on each side.

Front. — Large scarab between two small ones (all three missing). Below a B-bird, a horizon and an offering table with a flower. On left, standing figure on a naos broken away. On right, Osiris standing (on a naos?). Above, two winged hawks, Isis, Nephthys and mummy (?); also, two vertical lines of inscription.

Back. — Oval with six inscribed lines and one blank one, as body of hawk with wings, tail, legs and head. On left Isis and Anubis, on right Nephthys and Osiris. Above, winged sun’s disc.

Technique: Scarabs, sun’s disc on hawk’s heads, and sun’s disc on back, set in. Design partly in incised lines and partly in sunk relief.

Broken in two. Middle of left side broken out. Lower right corner broken away. All inlaid pieces except one sun’s disc, lost out.

12219. Pectoral, as amulet. — Green glazed stone. — Height o m. 0.86 mill., length o m. 0.93 mill. — Elephantine, June 1858 (scarab alone) (pl. XVI).

Front. — Three rows of figures. Lower row, three spaces. Small middle space, udjat-eye, above ded-sign between two knots. On right, bearded god squatting on nb-sign facing right, standing ape-headed figure facing right, and standing man with uplifted hands facing left. On left, ape-headed god squatting on nb-sign facing left, jackal-headed god standing facing left, man with uplifted hands facing right.

Left border. Two standing apes, one ded-sign, two standing apes, knot, ded-sign, knot, ded-sign, knot.

Back. — Three rows of figures. Bottom row. Bark of the form of funeral bark with hawk, squatting deity (bull’s-head?), squatting jackal-headed deity, kneeling man, woman (?) sitting on her heels.

(1) The fact that the scarab is entered alone in the Journal raises a doubt as to its belonging to the pectoral.
Second row. In middle, ded-sign; on right, kneeling Isis, standing ape, standing god; on left, kneeling Nephthys, standing ape and standing Anubis. — All facing ded-sign.

Third row. In middle, oval (representing bottom of scarab) with seven lines of inscription; on left Osiris sitting in naos; on right, above two kneeling jackal headed deities, below two kneeling hawk-headed deities.

Technique: Figures in relief on sunk background. Bright thick glaze. Scarab of green stone with black speckles. Stained and discolored to a blackish grey. Broken in two and glued.

12220. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blackish grey slate. — Height 0 m. 055 mill., length 0 m. 065 mill. (pl. XVI).

Form: Front of naos, with scarab in high relief out of same piece of stone. Back upper edge pierced by one hole on each side.

Front. — Solar bark with scarab. Dog-headed ape on each extremity. On left Isis, on right Nephthys. In each upper corner, a sun’s disc with rays with hands. Border on two sides. Vertical lines on cornice.

Back. — Oval (bottom of scarab) blank. Isis, Nephthys, two jackals and four udat-eyes as in figure.

Bibl.: Maspero, Catalogue, n° 1557.

12221. Pectoral in name of ḫēb-, as amulet. — Height 0 m. 091 mill., length 0 m. 072 mill. — Saqqarah, March 1859 (pl. XVII).

Form: Front of naos, with hollow cornice and round moulding. On top, small hawk’s head pierced from side to side as eyelet.
Front. — Scarab between two signs. Block border. Vertical lines on hollow cornice.

Back. — Six lines of roughly incised hieroglyphics:

Technique: Scarab and plate cut out of one piece. Scarab in high relief; feathers and border in low relief.

Lower left corner broken off and glued on. Back of scarab, brussed.

12222. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green glazed stone. — Height 0 m. 082 mill., length 0 m. 10 cent. — Abydos, May 1893 (pl. XVII).

Form: Front of naos. Upper front edge pierced by two holes on each side; fibres of a string in the right one. Block border: lines on cornice.

Back. — Beginning on left, Isis with horned disc standing facing right. Osiris seated facing right, above him a flying scarab: standard with jackal facing right: offering table with nympheaus carubaea, standing man with uplifted hands facing left. Behind him, Neit with crown of Lower Egypt. Above all, ten short vertical lines of inscription. Surrounded by simple incised lines.

Technique: Front, in relief, of udot-eyes, sun's disc, and back of scarab, apparently originally inlaid. Back, sunk relief or incised lines. The upper part (above line c) is a separate piece fastened on, in a manner at present not to be ascertained (glued?) before glazing: this piece suffered a fracture near middle also before glazing. Bright thick vitreous glaze. Color evenly distributed.

Bibl.: Wallis, Egyptian Ceramic Art; Journal d'entrée du Musée, n° 30346.
12223. Fragment of pectoral. — Soft blackish grey slate. — Height 0 m. 069 mill., length 0 m. 104 mill. — Karnak, salle hypostyle, near col. n° 13 (North), 12 December 1895 (Legrain) (pl. XVII).

Back. — Seven horizontal lines of inscription. On each side a by-bird above an udjat-eye.

Technique: Front in relief. Back, incised lines. Two holes, pierced from front to back with greater diameter in front than behind (i, j). Signs on heads of goddesses, pierced (g, h). Two other holes, vertical in the thickness of the plate.

Fragment.

12224. Pectoral, as amulet. — Blue green fayence. — Height 0 m. 072 mill., length 0 m. 077 mill. — Gaou, 1895 (pl. XVII).

Front. — Osiris, with Amon's feathers, squatting, facing right. Before him, Nephthys (?), sitting on her heels, holding something up with both hands, facing left. Surrounded by block border, interrupted above by Amon’s feathers. Vertical lines on hollow cornice.

Back. — Slightly convex but plain.

Technique: In relief; background cut out. Thick glaze poorly laid on with small points unglazed. Dark blue splotch on ‘nub-sign and on border, back of Osiris. Cracked in three places (b) before or during glazing-process. Border on right side, broken away, having been cracked before or during glazing.

Bibl.: Journal d'entrée du Musée, n° 31335.

12225. Pectoral, as amulet. — Hard-baked blue green frit. — Height 0 m. 063 mill., length 0 m. 069 mill. (pl. XVIII).

Form: Plate; naos-form has almost disappeared. Suspended by two eyelets on top.
CATALOGUE DU MUSÉE DU CAIRE.

Front. — Two udjat-eyes on ur-signs facing each other and separated by a ur-sign. Above, winged disc. Rounded moulding, eyebrows and iris are black.

Back. — Flat, blank.

Technique: Back shows imprint of coarse cloth, on which the paste was poured while soft. Front, in relief on sunk background. Roughly cut out with a knife. Extremely poor thin glaze.

12226. Pectoral, as amulet. — Baked clay colored green. — Height 0 m. 058 mill., length 0 m. 068 mill. (pl. XVIII).

Form: Plate, with naos-outline. No holes or eyelets for suspending. Same design on both sides. Cow standing; in front, plants springing up from the ground. Above, a winged serpent.

Technique: Red baked clay covered with an irregularly distributed coat of smooth green color (from light to dark). Design in very shallow sunk relief. Hand-made, not moulded.

12227. Tablet in form of naos, as amulet. — Blackish grey slate and glass. — Height 0 m. 038 mill., length 0 m. 038 mill. (pl. XVIII).

Front, frame enclosing single plate of white (clear) glass inlaid. Back, flat and plain. Eyelet on top (new broken off).

Bibl.: Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4226.

12228. Tablet in form of naos, as amulet. — Grey slate. — Height 0 m. 037 mill., length 0 m. 03 cent. (pl. XVIII).

Eyelet on top. Front hollowed out for inlay similar to n° 12227. Back, flat and plain.

12229. Tablet in form of front of naos, as amulet. — Blue glass. — Height 0 m. 037 mill., length 0 m. 04 cent. (pl. XVIII).

Blind eyelet on top. Middle field of front, red ded-sign between two yellow knots, all set in hollow filled with greyish plaster. Three red strips set in border, on top and two sides. Cornice winged disc. inlaid; only light green wing preserved. Badly cracked. Three or four small pieces chipped out.

Bibl.: Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4350.
12230. Tablet in form of front of naos, as amulet. — Light blue fayence. — Height 0 m. 0.35 mm., length 0 m. 0.29 mm. (pl. XVIII).

Eyelet on top.
Front. — Cow in relief. Hollow cornice with vertical lines in relief.
Back. — Flat, plain.

Technique: Made in a mould. White body. Color well distributed. Poor glaze.

12231. Tablet in form of front of naos, as amulet. — Light green fayence. — Height 0 m. 0.35 mm., length 0 m. 0.29 mm. (pl. XVIII).

Similar to n° 12230, but with background cut out deeper. Above the cow an udat-eye; above that a sun's disc between two ḫed-signs, flanked by rows of five ī-signs. Back, flat and plain. Eyelet on top.
Body, white. Coloring and glaze almost entirely worn off.

12232. Tablet in form of front of naos, as amulet. — Faded light blue green fayence. — Height 0 m. 0.32 mm., length 0 m. 0.27 mm.
Similar to n° 12230, but no sun's disc between horns of cow.
Glaze and color very poor.

12233. Tablet in form of naos, as amulet. — Blue fayence. — Height 0 m. 0.19 mm., length 0 m. 0.2 cent. (pl. XVIII).
Upper corners notched (for attaching the tablet); otherwise, like n° 12230. Glaze nearly entirely destroyed.

Bibl. : Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4588.

12234. Tablet in form of front of naos, as amulet. — Light olive green fayence. — Height 0 m. 0.19 mm., length 0 m. 0.19 mm. (pl. XVIII).
Eyelet on top. Cow in high relief, with two dark blue spots on its body, neck and loin. Smooth bright glaze, evenly colored. Whitish deposit in places.

Bibl. : Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4583.

12235. Tablet in form of front of naos, as amulet. — Carnelian. — Height 0 m. 0.36 mm., length 0 m. 0.21 mm. (pl. XVIII).
Hollow cornice, rounded moulding and plain common front. Back plain. Upper front edge pierced by one hole on each side. Polished.

Bibl. : Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4953.
Catal. du Musée, n° 5218.
12236. Tablet of irregular form, as amulet. — Light green frit (?). —
Height 0 m. 0.24 mill., length 0 m. 0.3 cent. (pl. XIX).

On front, cow walking, facing right. On back, pair of udat-eyes. Outlines of figures are incised. Two small holes through upper part for suspending. Unglazed.

Bibl.: Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4597.

12237. Tablet with rounded corners, as amulet. — Blue green frit. —
Height 0 m. 0.1 cent., length 0 m. 0.96 mill. (pl. XIX).

On front, cow with three flowers, outlines incised. The two left legs of the cow and the flowers are sunk. Back slightly convex and plain. Not glazed. Two holes for suspending.

Bibl.: Maspero, Catalogue, n° 4588.

12238. Tablet, rectangular, as amulet. — Green glazed stone. — Height 0 m. 0.23 mill., length 0 m. 0.19 mill. — Saqqarah, February 1860 (pl. XIX).
